Re: Griffin Health and Safety

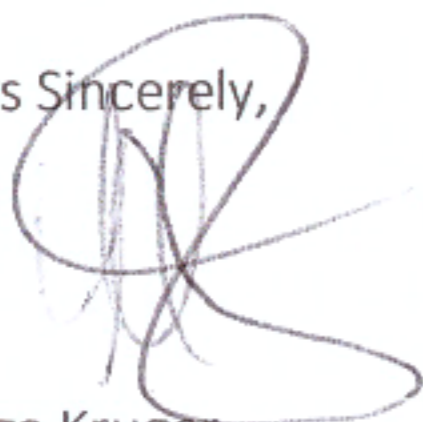

To whom it may concern:

This letter is in reference to Griffin Health and Safety which has assisted RePrac in health and safety matters since September 2014. RePrac focus on quality assurance and the implementation of quality as part of services provided to our customers. (ISO 9001:2008)

Due to the close relationship between safety, health, environment and quality (SHEQ) Griffin Health and Safety has been very informative and provided consultation services. The consultants at Griffin are a very knowledgeable and well versed in all matters pertaining to health and safety.

I would not hesitate to recommend Griffin Health and Safety to assist your company with health and safety - 18001

Yours Sincerely,

Marga Kruger
